

I am very disturbed to hear that the FCC has decided to allow even more concentration of media ownership, as this will further limit access to unbiased news and editorial content. However, I am not suprised, given the FCC's history of support for corporate media interests. I will be sure to make my views clear to all of my elected representatives and look forward to a quick reversal of this decision.